

How many spectators have tasted “Domestic”?

Three months after the premiere, the third feature of director Adrian Sitaru, distributed by 4 Proof Film gathered over 12 500 spectators in cinemas across the country! If you haven’t seen it yet, you still have a chance to enjoy “Domestic” in the following months in some less conventional spaces. An original strategy on behalf of 4 Proof Film which intends to screen the film in several zoos across Romania. We thank you all!
